Jeff and Andrew,

Thanks for the responses. We will proceed accordingly.

Clay

P.S. While I don't love the substance of the responses, I am glad you at least appreciated the humor. Got to have some fun amongst us at the appropriate times.

Clay:

We too will not provide documents filed under seal in this matter. (although, I must say, I appreciate the levity in your request!)

Thanks

Clay –

Latham – and not PSZJ – is the appropriate party to respond to your request for a copy of the documents they filed under seal.

As to the documents the Debtor filed under seal, we will not be providing you with a copy.

Best,
Jeff

Marty, Jeff, John M., Andrew and Zach,

I was not 100% certain to whom to address this e-mail. I attempted to piece together the distribution list via some guesses as to who is handling what. If I missed the people at your shops who should get this, please loop them in.

Yesterday, we got a litigation hold letter from both the plaintiff and defendant in the action that was filed below (we also got one to Sentinel et al., who we are not representing; but we did send that hold letter on to our client for appropriate distribution and handling).

We presume, but cannot be certain, that perhaps those litigation hold letters were somehow related to this suit. And we had seen the Motion to File Under Seal regarding this complaint, and that gave a tiny bit of color to what kind of action this suit may be. All that being said, it appears you think our client is involved, in some way, in whatever kind of suit this may be. We would like to see the suit also to make our own determination as to what, if any, of his rights may be impacted.

May I safely presume that we will be provided a copy? We will agree to be bound by the Protective Order that I believe is in place in the main bankruptcy case. Please advise.

Thanks in advance for your consideration of this request.
